

Friendly League Gala

Bridlington swimming club competed in the first friendly League Gala of 2010 hosted by Driffield.

The Gala provided some excellent swimming and lots of exciting finishes.

The 9 & U girls, Emme Sandbach, Maya Bentley, Katie Nicholson and Ellie Hughes put in some good times to win their medley relay and take 2nd place in the freestyle race.

Megan Pattison, Rebecca Keyworth, Katie Haynes and Sarah Witty swam in the 11 & U and blasted into 1st place in both their relays. Sarah won her butterfly event.

Maisie Banks, swimming in her first team Gala, won the individual freestyle. Tori Dickinson took 1st position in the breaststroke then teamed up with Charlotte Hornsey and Sarah Witty to win the 13 & U medley relay and take a close 2nd in the freestyle team race.

The open age girls swam superbly taking winning position in both relays.

The team members were Jodie Marsh, Maria Hornsey, Rebecca Smith and Sarah Holmes. Sarah also won the open freestyle.

James Cawkill, swimming in his first Gala, Jack Cowell, James Frankish and Kyle McKenna swam to 2nd place in the 9 & U freestyle relay. Jack won the individual freestyle.

The 11 & U boys swam really well winning the freestyle race. In the individual races Brandon Lino won the backstroke and Tom King the butterfly.

Thomas Holehouse and Matthew Cawkill made up this swimming quartet.

The 13 & U team of Christopher Smith, Wayne Oakley, Tom King and James Holehouse put up a good show to gain a creditable 2nd place in the freestyle relay.

James won the breaststroke race.

In the boys open events Philip Ansell and Daniel Sewell were supported by two of the younger age group, Wayne Oakley and James Holehouse, to take 2nd position in both team relays.

Daniel won the freestyle race.

The whole team must be congratulated on their super performance. Lots of personal best times were recorded.

Many thanks to the parents who helped with official duties.

Bridlington came second to Pocklington in the final positions.
